Elks, OORP honor charter members at their 40th Anniversary celebrations

One charter member of Elk Point BPO Elks and three charter members of Elk Point OORP were honored Saturday evening as the two lodges celebrated forty years since their founding.

Elmer Bjornstad has been a member of the Elk Point Elks since its beginning, and was Exalted Ruler in 1974-75 and District Deputy in 1975, later serving many years on the lodge executive.

Past District Deputy Mary Bochon, Past Honored Royal Lady Mary Kryvenchuk and Lady Niki Riemer have proudly worn Order of the Royal Purple regalia as members of the lodge throughout its existence.

Two other OORP charter members, Kay Rylance and Helga Vaughan, and Elks charter member Jim Rylance were unable to attend the celebration.

Exalted Ruler Albert Boratynec and Honored Royal Lady Irene Pilisko welcomed members and guests to the anniversary celebration. HRL Pilisko said both lodges "should be proud of their accomplishments in the past and of those they will make in the future."

Elks District Deputy Ron Baker paid tribute to the members who got the lodges started and those who put the celebration together, a sentiment which was echoed by his Royal Purple counterpart, District Deputy Addie Noble.

Roy Poisson, Third Vice President of the Alberta Elks Association, spoke on "the usefulness of lodges in small communities," and said Elk Point is "a highlight in the province - the lodges have done a lot for the community." He urged the orders to remain active and asked as many as possible to attend the upcoming provincial conference. Poisson also noted there had been "little recycling" in the lodge executive and congratulated the Elks on "bringing in new people through the ranks. You're doing something right."

Grand Lodge representative Bill Ward brought greetings from Grand Exalted Ruler Bob Manning, who sent along the message that "Elks and Royal Purple are the biggest and best volunteer group in most communities. We must ask individually and collectively if we can help the children, the seniors and the groups in our communities." In the past five years, Elk Point lodges contributed $16,500 to the national Elks and Royal Purple Fund for Children and in that time the Elks have contributed $63,000 to provincial and national charities and to the community. "You are to be commended on your efforts. It is appropriate that you are not only respected in the community but recognized outside. You are commended for your leadership in the community."

Past District Deputy Bill Schuhmacher put on his deputy mayor hat to bring greetings from Mayor Ed Buck and Town Council. Buck was one of the original members of the lodge and is proud of the lodge's accomplishments, including the community hall.

Elk Point explores new tourism opportunities with REACH

REACH Corporation's community economic development opportunity initiative work plan to assist with tourism opportunities came to Elk Point last week, as Tammy Bodnar facilitated a meeting of area residents.

Numbers were few but enthusiasm was high as Bodnar outlined the area covered by the project, and said her mandate was to determine the needs and the support for tourism, which she feels has "tremendous potential."

A "SWAT analysis" showed the area's strengths include diversity of agriculture, land base and industry, innovative thinking and, looking forward, the 2005 centennial of Alberta and Saskatchewan. Weaknesses include over-regulation of fishing, a transient population and the lack of "thinking big." Attractions in the area are many, but "the more we get in the area, the more will come." Threats include the mindset that "we're not competing with anyone," which is far from the truth.

Participants were interested in the unity of the area, and suggested an internal rating system for everything from restaurants to tire shops. It was agreed that "every business should be a tourist booth," with employees knowledgeable about attractions and events in the area, and that "it's all our business to be tourism friendly and business friendly."

Bodnar told the group that REACH has developed a plan to go beyond this year with tourism development, but "has to have the buy-in of operators and communities." More immediate plans agreed upon were for a listing of events and further meetings.

Further meetings to discuss how businesses and communities can get their fair share of tourism dollars were scheduled for last night in Mallaig and June 6 at 7 p.m. at the County Office in St. Paul, as well as a meeting in Ashmont.

Emergency Services STARS golf tourney next week

On June 6, Elk Point Emergency Services will be hosting their second annual golf tournament at the Elk Point Golf Club. Registration is at 9 a.m. with a shotgun start at 10 a.m. The format once again is a Texas scramble.

There is very limited space left in the golf tournament due to overwhelming response from our major sponsors. No team spots are available but there are a few single spots for golfers, who will be placed on five-player teams. Any golfers wishing to participate are asked to attend the Elk Point RCMP Detachment on Wednesday, May 30, starting at 8 a.m. The first paid golfers attending the Detachment and filling the spots will be in the tournament. The entry fee will once again be $50, which includes 18 holes of golf, hole prizes, steak supper and door prizes, with every golfer going home with a prize. There will also be four hole-in-one chances for major prizes.

Golf carts can be booked by calling Elk Point Golf Club at 724-3733.

Once again, thanks to all those who have contributed to this year's tournament. With your help, we are hoping to match or surpass the over $13,000 raised at last year's tournament. Anyone still wishing to donate can call Sgt. Lyle Marianchuk at 724-3964.

Elk Point RCMP: a quiet long weekend

Elk Point RCMP had a relatively quiet long weekend with only two complaints lodged in the Laurier Lake area. Police conducted seven checkpoints with approximately 200 vehicles checked and license plates recorded. One liquor ticket, one suspended driving charge and one other traffic charge were laid as a result of these checkpoints.

The Elk Point RCMP would like to thank the Natural Resources officers who assisted in the patrols and checkpoints. Thanks also to the County of St. Paul and cabin owners for their cooperation and assistance in keeping the weekend safe and enjoyable for everyone.

Montreal next hope for Jeffrey Young

Epilepsy-plagued Elk Point teen Jeffrey Young and his mother Sherry returned May 20 from the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota, and Sherry said the experience was "long and tiring for Jeffrey."

Mayo specialists found an area in Jeffrey's brain which needs more testing. Rather than being symmetrical, "it's smaller than its counterpart on the other side of the brain and has reduced blood flow," Sherry said. Chances of being able to operate on the area to eliminate or reduce the frequency of the seizures which have occurred throughout Jeffrey's life "are about 10 to 15 percent. If this area can't be operated on, we're back to the same treatment options we've had for the past 13 years, which are primarily different medications."

Three specialized tests to determine if such an operation is feasible are going to be pursued in Montreal, because "to do them in the states would be very, very expensive," Sherry said. The data from the tests must be analyzed using a "very sophisticated technology called SISCOM," she added. "If the SISCOM isn't available in Montreal, we may be forced to return to the Mayo Clinic."

Arrangements are currently in progress to obtain an appointment for Jeffrey at the Montreal Neurological Institute.

At this time, there are no other current technologies or breakthroughs that can help Jeffrey. However, his mother said, "one of our other hopes is that with time, and more technology, there might be something that can help him."

The Youngs were very impressed by the facility and scope of the Mayo Clinic, which treats people from all over the world. "There is a vast number of things that people come there for. It really hits you as to the magnitude of what they do there," Sherry said. People living in Rochester and surrounding areas also benefit from Mayo expertise. "If you live in that geographical area, you would most likely see a Mayo Clinic level physician, even to deliver a baby."

The Youngs enjoyed the hospitality of Ronald McDonald House, just a few blocks from the Mayo Clinic, for several days. "In that facility, you have your own bedroom and bath, and common living, dining and eating areas, a games room, a playroom, laundry facilities and shuttle service as needed. Volunteers donate food to Ronald McDonald House that is in the common kitchens for any patient to use. If people have the opportunity to donate food, Ronald McDonald House is a good place to donate to. There are a number of needy people from all over who stay there, and this need is something people may not think about." They found the facility "much better than a hotel room," Sherry said. "It was more pleasurable for Jeffrey, and there were even computers with Internet access -- the only connection to home for all of us."

Once again, the Youngs want to thank family, friends and communities for the continuing support which is helping them to seek a cure for Jeffrey's increasingly debilitating epilepsy.

County of St. Paul No. 19
ROADSIDE
SPRAYING

The County of St. Paul No. 19 Agricultural Service Board will start their Roadside Spraying Program along Primary, Secondary and other Municipal Roads as required to control the spread of weeds and brush growth by mid June.

Landowners who do not want the ditches adjacent to their property sprayed with Herbicide and are prepared to control the weeds in the ditches at their own expense are asked to contact the Agricultural Fieldman to notifying him. You will also be asked to sign a "No Spray Policy Agreement" stating that you accept responsibility for the control of weeds in the ditch along your property. If you fail to control these weeds by mowing or spraying, the County may control them by whatever means they consider appropriate.

For more information, or to sign a "No Spray Policy Agreement" please contact the Assistant Agricultural Fieldman at 645-3006 or Fax 645-1800.

C.O.P.S RCMP's "extra eyes and ears"

By Thomas Kondla
Elk Point Citizens on Patrol Society

Elk Point Citizens on

Patrol has been up and running for a little over a year now. It is a volunteer program supported closely by the RCMP that encourages residents to get involved in our community by observing and reporting suspicious activity. We have become extra "eyes and ears" for the police. We travel in pairs at least two nights a week. We do not work for the RCMP, we work for the community to make it a safer place to live. Training and screening of new members is done by the RCMP.

We have two objectives:

- to increase citizen participation in monitoring the town
- to reduce incidences of crime such as vandalism, break and enter and theft.

We have had a very successful first year and are looking forward to many more. A few highlights from the past year include:

- discovery of a fire in the dumpster at the Elementary School
- found stolen lawnmower behind the old Post Office
- traffic control for STARS one night
- report of a severely impaired driver
- a garage door that was left open late at night unknown to the owner
- constant feedback to the RCMP on trouble spots
- constant monitoring of Markstad Park
- monitoring of the Golf Course, River

Campsite and the Agricore site

■ plus much, much more.....

Signage has been posted on four entrances to town stating that "Elk Point is a C.O.P.S. Community," thanks to a large donation by the Elk Point Legion. We would also like to thank our two members and Tarsands for donating the time to place these signs. We would also like to publicly thank all the businesses who have helped to support us over the last year.

We are looking for donations from both businesses and individuals to erect another sign by the Water Treatment Plant as soon as possible. If you can help, please send donations to Elk Point C.O.P.S., Box 785, Elk Point, AB, T0A 1A0. Tax receipts will be issued.

We are also always looking for new members. If you feel this is a worthwhile cause and can donate one night every one or two months please let us know. Applications and more info can be picked up at the Elk Point RCMP Detachment.

As the new President of Elk Point C.O.P.S. for the next year my mandates will be to increase membership and increase awareness of our existence. This is a great asset to the community and your help would be greatly appreciated.

Meals-on-Wheels Awareness Week

By Deanna Easthope
FCSS Director

Guess what? Would you believe Meals-On-Wheels Awareness Week was May 20 to 26, 2001. Yes, I know that was last week. So why don't I just forget about it? We all can't do that because this is a great service to our town of Elk Point.

Meals on Wheels assists seniors or individuals who for any reason find it difficult to prepare their own main meal. This may be for a short term or long term duration. Meals-On-Wheels is a program that delivers a hot, nutritious noon meal to the person in their own home.

In our community of Elk Point, the Meals-On-Wheels program is a partnership between the Town of Elk Point FCSS (Family and Community Support Services) and the Elk Point Health Centre. The coordinator and the volunteer drivers volunteer through FCSS and the meals are prepared by the Elk Point Health Centre. Individuals who require the meals pay a cost recovery amount for the meals.

If anyone would like to receive meals through this program, you may give Meals-On-Wheels coordinator Olga Ruzycski a call at 724-3547. The main driver for the program is Walter Yaremkevich. Backup drivers are Hazel Raymond Hammond and Dan Demchuk. We appreciate all of you for being a part of the program. Thank you for being great volunteers. Thank you!

Speaking of enjoying meals in our own homes, let me share a good recipe for Caramelitas from "Quick Cooking 2000." 1 cup plus 1 Tbsp. all purpose flour, divided 1 cup quick-cooking oats 3/4 cup packed brown sugar 1/2 tsp. baking soda 1/4 tsp. salt 3/4 cup butter or margarine, melted 1 cup (6 oz.) semisweet chocolate chips 1 jar (12 1/4 oz.) caramel ice cream topping 1/2 cup chopped walnuts

In a bowl, combine 1 cup flour, oats, brown sugar, baking soda and salt. Stir in butter, mix well. Press into a greased 13 x 9 x 2 inch baking pan. Bake at 350° for 10 minutes or until set. Sprinkle with chocolate chips. Combine caramel topping and 1 Tbsp. flour until blended, drizzle over chips. Sprinkle with nuts. Bake 20 - 22 minutes longer until bubbly. Cool completely, cut into bars. Yield - 3 dozen.

Try this recipe and enjoy. After all - home made candy bars have their own unique taste that last longer.

Two local members receive the Order of Red Cross

By Jean McGinnis

Two local people received the Order of Red Cross at the awards ceremony at the Mayfield Inn, Edmonton, on May 12. The Order of Red Cross is the highest award one can receive from the Canadian Red Cross. Recipients of this very special award at this year's presentations were Violet McFadyen and Horace Osinchuk.

Violet McFadyen has been an active member of the Red Cross family since 1925, when she was President of the Junior Red Cross at East Berry School. Since then, Violet has continued to support the work of the Red Cross in Elk Point. Over the past 76 years, her roles have been varied but her commitment has never wavered. In 1968 she became President of the Elk Point Branch and held that position for 25 years. During this time she was also campaign chairman from 1979 to 1989. She has always been actively involved in quilting, fundraising and assisting in disaster circumstances, and continues to do so.

Horace Osinchuk has been a member of the Red Cross for 54 years. Following a life-threatening medical crisis which required several blood transfusions, he committed himself to canvassing for Red Cross funds during the 15 Year Milestone - Jean McGinnis, Carol Hellquist.

20 Year Milestone - Peggy Maas, Olga Ruzycki.

25 Year Milestone - Beverly Peterson, Laverne Wilson.

The history of the Red Cross in Elk Point has been impressive over the years and continues to be so. This year's campaign for funds, in March, netted a total of $9488.25. To the residents of Elk Point and district, a resounding "Thank You." This money raised locally is spent locally, on water safety, disaster preparedness, first aid, home and community support, and abuse prevention.

Amounts raised in local individual areas were: Landonville, $1440; Heinsburg and District, $1102; Lindbergh and District, $1108; Elk Point Town, $2642.25; Elk Point Rural, $3196.

There are 37 door-to-door campaigns throughout central and northern Alberta regions. There are 1600 volunteers and 400 canvassers.

Palliative Care hosts open house

By Grace Kinjerski
Elk Point Palliative Care

Elk Point Palliative Care hosted their first Open House on Thursday, May 10, 2001 at the Elk Point Health Centre's inservice room. Thanks to all those who attended!

Elk Point Palliative Care has been in operation since 1995, operating solely on donations and by volunteers.

For those who are not aware, the Elk Point Hospital allotted two rooms to palliative care. These two rooms have been connected by a joining doorway. One of the rooms is the bedroom, while the other room is furnished as the sitting/dining room.

When it has become medically or physically impossible for a terminally ill patient to stay in his or her own home, the palliative room is offered for their comfort as a substitute "home away from home." The room is furnished with a hide-a-bed couch, an easy chair, TV and VCR, table and chairs, microwave, toaster oven, automatic coffee perk, ghetto blaster radio and cassette player, bookcase and books, dresser, homey curtains, even a phone to keep close contact.

Family or friends are made welcome to stay in the rooms during the day and also may stay the night with their loved one.

Another little feature the room offers is a host of wonderful people from the commu-

Class of 1981 salutes 2001 counterparts at Frog Lake

Frog Lake Napewaew School's first-ever graduating class from two decades ago were a special part of the ceremonies Friday night as they saluted the four-member Class of 2001. Christina Cardinal, Class of 1981, congratulated the graduands on the happy occasion, and said that when she and her eight classmates graduated, "we all made different choices. A lot has happened to fulfill our destinies."

Class of 1981 students Lorraine Hozack, Marjorie Quinney, Brian Horse, Gary Quinney and Catherine Fiddler were also on hand for the evening. Classmates Florence Berland, Brenda Horse and Dennis Quinney were unable to attend.

The Class of 1981 had fond memories of the school's original staff members, and presented gifts to Grace and Raymond Quinney, Cecile and Dewey Dion, Mrs. Bea Neumier, Sister Jeannette and Sister Jeannine. "Many great teachers helped to build our past," Christina Cardinal said, advising the Grade 9s to keep working hard in class and the Grade 12s to "hold your heads high, keep in your hearts who you are and where you come from."

The Class of 2001, Samantha Faithful, Lawrence Quinney, Russell Quinney and Theodore Walker led the grand entry procession which also included 23 Grade 9 promeers. The music of Creed's "Higher" swirled around them as they entered a gymnasium decked with silver stars, blue and white streamers, balloons and dreamcatchers, and a banner with their theme, "Soaring Higher Together."

Principal, Mr. Szucs, told the graduands and promeers "your parents and grandparents want this to be an honorable experience, and an incentive to go further. You have been given a foundation for achievement, and have learned to make responsible choices." He predicted a high level of achievement in the future and reminded them to "stand tall, gentle and respectful."

Mary Elizabeth Stanley, Grade 9 teacher, introduced the promeers and said "it is with honor and pride that we gather as they celebrate a milestone. The youth of a people reflects the heartbeat of a nation." She said it has been "a rewarding experience to be part of the Grade 9 Class of 2001," and asked that they promise to represent their community with honor and dignity.

CLASS OF 2001 VALEDICTORIAN Samantha Faithful thanked all who had helped her class reach their goal of high school graduation.

Grade 9 promeers were: Charity Chief, Trey Dion, Robyn Lajimodiere, Mary Mountain, Dionna Quinney, Kristy Quinney, Natasha Quinney, Neyosa Quinney, Nikita Quinney, Waylon Quinney, Terrance Singer, Summerlee Smith, Bradley Stanley, Fabian Stanley, Jimmy Stanley, Kerri Stanley, R. J. Stanley, Joshua Wade, Crystal Moocheewines, Donavan Waskahat, Earl Waskahat, Leonette Waskahat and Maryn Waskahat.

Grade 9 co-valedictorian Waylon Quinney told the assembly of family and friends that "20 years from now, we will look back at this milestone." Neyosa Quinney, who shared the honor, added that "the new millennium has brought new dreams and goals." She said it was an honor to have Frog Lake's first graduating class on hand for the occasion, and told the Class of 2001 to "hold your heads high. You have reached the goal of graduating from high school." To her classmates she added thanks "for being part of a wonderful year."

Mrs. Murphy, the Grade 12 English, Social Studies, and Music teacher, introduced the Grade 12s and told a little about each one.

Class of 2001 valedictorian Samantha Faithful thanked parents, chief and council in her brief address.

Chief Raymond Quinney said he was "honored to witness this special occasion," and thanked the teachers for their cooperative efforts and caring. "Together, we work for a common goal. The future is there for our young people, and we will continue to work for bigger goals." Four members of his council joined him onstage to shake hands with the graduands and promeers, and each added their remarks. Council member Mark Stanley said "life is just beginning for each and every one of them. It is quite an accomplishment to finish Grade 12 or even Grade 9. A lot of people I grew up with didn't."

Frog Lake elders Dewey Dion, William Singer and J. B. Stanley came forward to present the graduands with eagle feathers as part of a moving ceremony, prior to the presentation of certificates and gifts to graduands and promeers.

The graduation ceremonies concluded with an honor song by the drum group.

FROG LAKE'S FIRST GRADUATING CLASS OF '81 who who took a fond look back 20 years to their own graduation were Catherine Fiddler, Brian Horse, Lorraine Hozack, Marjorie Quinney, Gary Quinney and Christina Cardinal.

A letter to parents and the public from Alberta's teachers.

The inadequate resources for education in the recent provincial budget have raised many questions and concerns.

Alberta's teachers want to assure parents and other members of the public that through June 30, 2001, members of Alberta's teaching profession will continue to deliver all of the services they normally provide:

- Ongoing instruction in classrooms
- Working with other agencies to meet students' special needs
- Supervising students outside of the classroom
- Marking tests and examinations
- Supervising extra-curricular activities such as coaching and graduation ceremonies
- Working with school councils and undertaking related activities.

However, if the provincial government refuses to provide adequate funding to school boards, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to continue providing these services in the fall. In the coming year, we face a very serious situation arising from the provincial government's failure to allocate sufficient resources to address concerns related to classroom conditions, salaries and the need to attract and retain qualified professional teachers.

We encourage you to contact your MLA and urge the government to allocate substantial additional funding to Alberta's school boards to enable them to:

- establish classroom conditions that will allow teachers to meet the learning needs of all children
- negotiate teacher salary increases that reflect the value of the contribution made by the profession
- attract and retain qualified members of the teaching profession.

Public education is the key to a knowledge-based society in a globally competitive world. Alberta has the resources to make the necessary investment in public education. What is needed is changed priorities and political will. Please contact your MLA.

MLA phone numbers may be obtained by calling the following toll free number: 310-0000.

Elks, OORP honor charter members at 40th Anniversary

congratulatory certificate from the Town.

As Elks treasurer, Schuhmacher added that the lodge donated $9500 to the community last year, $2500 of it to fire victims, and obtained over $500 from the Children's Fund to help three local youngsters. In the 40 years of the lodge, close to $500,000 has been donated to the community, including annual scholarships to local students.

HONORED ROYAL LADY Irene Pilisko and Exalted Ruler Albert Boratynec cut the anniversary cake.

Exalted Ruler Boratynec related the history of the lodge, which held its first meeting May 21, 1961 in the Elk Point school auditorium with 60 charter members. Their $50 building fund had grown to $3000 by 1965, when they undertook the building of the hall, which opened in 1966. The Elks burned their hall mortgage in 1975 and in 1978 they extended and renovated the hall.

The Elks first held bingos in 1964, and the funds they raised helped finance many projects, sponsoring a band and majorettes, junior and senior hockey teams, a playground, community van, ball park and campground as well as helping out many other organizations. The Elks have participated in community events such as Atiak Days and Canada Day, and most recently have sponsored videos on bullying and teasing for use in the schools. They are especially proud to support the Institute for Stuttering Research, and say "we're really happy to help kids." ER Boratynec called the Royal Purple "a source of strength and help," and said he is confident their work in the community will continue in the future.

PDD Mary Bochon said that when the OORP started in 1961 with Phyllis Boos as Honored Royal Lady and 35 charter members, "we were all very young, energetic and vibrant." The ladies learned the principles of Purpledom - love, understanding and harmony - "and have lived that for forty years." Although the ladies are "no longer vibrant and energetic", they still cater, run the concession booth at bingo, hold their Mother's Day dessert tea and Crafts and More sale, participate in parades on Canada Day and Remembrance Day, and enjoy many other events. "We are still a very active lodge." Among those active members is 90-year-young Anne Buck, who along with Morris Cooper, 88, entertained with the recitation of poems.

A minute of silence remembered departed lodge sisters and brothers.

Representatives of St. Paul, Myrnam and Vermilion lodges brought messages of congratulations as the ceremonies drew to a close. Honored Royal Lady Pilisko and Exalted Ruler Boratynec cut a handsome anniversary cake and everyone enjoyed looking through a table filled with lodge history books and reminiscing about their many adventures with their fellow Elks and Royal Purple members.

Elk Point Health Centre a link in S.T.A.R.S. Chain of Survival

When you mention S.T.A.R.S. in Elk Point, you're generally talking about the speedy helicopter crews who zoom into town and transport a critically ill or badly injured patient to Edmonton. But there's more to S.T.A.R.S. than their aircraft crews, as was illustrated last Tuesday at Elk Point Health Centre when Marcel Podlosky came to town for the presentation of emergency equipment funded through the S.T.A.R.S. Chain of Survival.

The Chain of Survival receives funding from provincial lottery money, and this year disbursed $480,000 to 82 of the 166 health centres, emergency medical services and search and rescue units across the province who applied for help in obtaining equipment and staff training needed to cope with emergency situations.

"We're not the first responders," Podlosky said, adding that the funds help services in rural Alberta to treat critically ill patients until the air ambulance personnel arrive.

Elk Point Health Centre received $1289.97 from the fund to purchase a pulse oximeter, a device used to measure both pulse and the oxygen saturation in the blood by merely attaching a clip to the finger of a patient. Measuring the oxygen in the blood is especially important to the well-being of such patients as asthmatics. The painless, non-invasive procedure is helpful in assessment of patients in the emergency department, and the device has a special attachment for use on children.

Another way that S.T.A.R.S. helps other communities is through medical outreach training which helps first responders to give the best care possible to their patients. One of these sessions is slated for mid-June at the Elk Point Fire Hall.

Six times for Tuu Times

Over $2000 was raised for cancer research at the 15th Annual Jan Frisby Memorial Slowpitch Tournament this weekend, making over $12,000 in the past six years.

"It's all because of you guys," tournament Lions Club organizers Lyle Frisby and Keith Campbell told the players and donors who made the fundraiser possible. "It's a humbling experience for Lyle and I to organize this tournament each year. Everyone came through big time."

Donations of the use of a portable bar, beverages and cash, including $100 from Russ Hebblethwaite and donations of prize money from two of the teams added to the success of the annual fundraiser.

Two losses, win for "young guns"

By Doug Bassett
Review Sports

Sometimes you throw the game away, literally! That's exactly what happened to Midget White Sox, AKA the "young guns," when they traveled to Two Hills on Thursday night. The "young guns" had an early five run lead, but a bad fifth inning with lots of little throwing errors cost them big time. Jonathan "JB" Buryin getting his first appearance on the mound.

Then on Sunday the Sox were in St. Paul for a double header, meeting the hosts in the first match up. The "young guns" took the lead with Mark "the marksman" Letestu on the mound and throwing some good heat, but with a few errors, and the boys found themselves trailing and then struggling at the plate, in the last few innings, they lost to St. Paul 8 to 4. Some real positives though, real good base running and sliding by "Smokin' Joel" Leckie and Nicky Myshaniuk, two rookies who are really hitting well.

The Sox opened the second game against Lac La Biche with big Isaac Peters on the hill and were in trouble early, down by four runs. They were hitting better than they did in the first game, and battled back, but never could quite catch up, always trailing by two or three runs.. David Honey came in for relief in the fourth inning, keeping the game within reach until the bottom of the seventh. The last bat for the Sox, and in the dugout, on came the rally caps. Look out, Lac La Biche! Kurt Kozicky and "JB" Buryin scoring on a hit by David Honey, who also scores. Two out, the game tied, runners on, the big steal. Grayson Bilak sliding into home on a pass ball to win the game. The Sox steal the game, but you can't say the same for the other guys. Catcher Brian "Gunner" Poitras, with a cannon for an arm picking off five runners stealing in this game and seven runners on this day. You would think after a while these guys would learn not to try running against the big "gunner."

On Deck - this week the Sox will be busy. Wednesday night they travel to Vegreville, then on Thursday they will be in Wainwright.

The Bantam Girls were hungry after losing a close one to St.

Paul a week earlier, and all gave it 110%, winning 29 to 27 over St. Paul at home on Tuesday night. Excellent job by Dayna Yaremkevich, pitching the entire game, some awesome fielding at short stop by Kirsty Lindquist, center fielder Kyla Ference with four catches, and backcatcher Taryn Shankowski, who never let much get by her. Jasmine Brown scored the winning run.

The next night Cold Lake was in town to meet the girls in another nail biter, the game ending in an 18-18 tie. Kyla Ference and Brandi Breen pitching in this one, Robin Schade snagging a hard liner on short stop, Kyla Ference with a homer, and Kirsty Lindquist sliding home to tie the game. Tomorrow night the girls travel to St. Paul.

Minor Ball president Laverne Wilson and his Peewee Girls Predators played on a beautiful Tuesday night, losing a tight one at home to St. Paul, 25 to 21 in the first game of a home-and-home series. Several great hits by the Predators, including Ashley Hebblethwaite with a home run. They then traveled to St. Paul on Wednesday, losing another close one 24 to 17. St. Paul squeezed across the extra runs in the last inning.

Wanda Cochrane and the Squirt girls were also in St. Paul, winning 16 to 14, Amanda Marianchuk slamming a big home run.

Safe Kids Week 2001

Protect your family from scalds and burns

May 28 to June 3 is Safe Kids Week, and Safe Kids Canada and the Canadian Pediatric Society have endorsed a national campaign to promote key messages about scald and burn prevention. In 1997, 167 children visited emergency departments in the Lakeland Health Region for the treatment of scalds and burns. Many scalds and burns can be prevented by observing the four key messages of the campaign:

1. Check your tap water temperature. Turn your hot water heater down to 49° C or 120° F or use anti-scald devices on your tap.
2. Keep children safely out of the way when you are cooking or making hot drinks.
3. Keep hot drinks away from children. Put a lid on hot drinks, even at home.

4. Test the battery in your smoke detector every month. Replace the battery once a year.

To learn more about scalds and burn prevention, visit www.safekidsCanada.ca, call your local health unit, or the Lakeland Injury Control Team (780-895-2211, Ext. 176 or 780-826-8223).

what's NEWS at the LIBRARY?

We're getting excited about the Summer Reading Program

By Daphne Schnurer
Librarian

Welcome to Ashley Larson, our Library Assistant and Summer Reading Program coordinator. Ashley is excited to start the Summer Reading Program and is currently getting prepared for it. The summer program will begin at the start of July. Days have not been decided yet so make sure to check the newspapers and posters for the times. It will be a dollar a visit for each kid and I encourage all of you to come out and have some fun reading this summer. Ashley will be going to the schools to tell the kids about the program and will send notes home so that should give the kids a better idea of what to expect.

Here are some new books that we have in this week:

Heart of a Warrior by Johanna Lindsey - Lindsey has brought the magic back in a wonderful new novel that proves how delightfully well she knows the intricate workings of the human heart.

Final Target by Iris Johansen - This explosive new novel will sweep you from the frightening nightmares of a young girl to the deadly world of international intrigue, and to the shadowy bond between two sisters willing to put their lives on the line.

The Last Hostage by John J. Nance - Be prepared to be held hostage to the nail-biting suspense of a world class thriller. Nance ratchets up the tension with expertly crafted twists and turns that converge into an unforgettably wrenching dilemma.

The Relationship Cure by John M. Gottman - A five-step guide for building better connections with family, friends and lovers.

River Song by Phil Jenkins - This book is a rich panorama that features tales of war, trade, hope, disappearance and triumph. Whales and wildlife abound, canoes yield to steamers and freighters, and

Drought conditions on all of our minds

By Ray Danyluk, MLA
Lac La Biche - St. Paul

Farmers and ranchers from across the constituency have been asking me how they will manage if drought conditions persist throughout the growing season. Dry conditions last fall and low snow levels throughout the winter have depleted dugout water levels and left many pastures almost barren this spring.

In session, I asked the Alberta Agriculture, Food and Rural Development Minister, Hon. Shirley McClellan, what options might be available to farmers.

Minister McClellan said the dry conditions are continuing on into the spring much longer than any of us had anticipated and that one thing that is devastating about this dry period is that it is province-wide. The Honorable Minister said she is working closely with Alberta Environment, Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Administration and the federal government to come up with a solution as soon as she can.

Alberta Agriculture, Food and Rural Development is again reducing the rates charged to producers for the rental of water pumping equipment by 50 per cent from standard rental rates. The Water Pumping Program allows farmers to rent water-pumping equipment during times of water shortage. This is the second consecutive year that producers have been able to access this service at a reduced rate. You can contact your local Alberta Agriculture, Food and Rural Development office for more information.

The government recognizes the recently announced $10.29 acreage payment is a short term support and is working on long term stability options for farmers and ranchers.

If you have any comments or questions, please feel free to contact me at my Constituency Office, 645-6999, or in Edmonton at 780-415-9578. I am located at 4434-50 Avenue, St.

Minor Ball summary to May 22

Elk Point Sluggers Mite Softball - Coach Laverne Wilson reports that his team has had three practices to date. The team has only six players, "so we work on basic ball skills and scrimmage against the parents." They are looking for more players, and if you are interested, please call Laverne. Later, they plan to take on the rookies in a game.

Elk Point Midget Girls - We were hopeful to field a midget team this year as a follow-up to last year's successes of our Midget Girls team. However, coach Dave Cousins ended up short of players due to many of the team members being employed part time and were unable to commit themselves to ball. Hopefully, next year there will be upward movement from the Bantams that will see the Midget Girls back in action.

Elk Point Predators Pee wee Girls Softball

traveled to Cold Lake to take on the Cold Lake Pee wee team on Wednesday, May 16, a very entertaining game that saw us take a 2-0 lead after our first bat. After Cold Lake's bat, we saw strong hitting take the lead to 7-2. Starting pitcher Amy Olstad settled down to consistent pitching and our defense came up with solid efforts. Our offense also showed bat strength with several key hits made by several players, including three home runs by Ashley Hebblethwaite. Tanya Orr came in as our closer and pitched well to assist in earning the win. Final score: Elk Point 28, Cold Lake 15.

The Midget White Sox were on top of their game on May 16 at Bassett Field, when the visiting St. Paul midget team met up with starting pitcher, "the Marksman" Mark Letestu, going three and a half innings without allowing a run.

The Sox defense with some throwing errors in the top of the fourth, allowed St. Paul to score two runs to take a 2-1 lead. While the Sox loaded up the bases, with two out in the bottom of the fourth, David Honey laid down a perfect squeeze play bunt, the Sox scoring to tie the game. Then the rally started, coming to bat, Curtis "The Baby Ruth" nailed a long triple, his second hit of the game, the Sox now leading 6 to 2. Reliever Isaac "the Big Unit" Peters, coming in to shut them down for the last two innings, the Sox with a big win at home.

Summary on Minor Ball 2001:
Baseball - teams in T-ball, Rookies, Mosquitoes, Midgets
Softball - all levels up to Bantams
Number of players enrolled - 100, give or take one or two.

Trip of the Month draw

Elk Point Lioness Trip of the Month Club winners for the May 16 draw are Sheila Thompson, winner of the trip to Disneyland, Nick and Olga Kadutski, $100, and Tracy Loughran, $100. The next draw is scheduled for June 20.
